

Sylvia Browne Hypnosis Training Center Code of Ethics

As a Hypnotist/Hypnotherapist holding certification from the Sylvia Browne Hypnosis Training Center, I commit to conducting my professional relationships in accord with the Code of Ethics and undertake to the following statements:

1. I hold myself responsible for the quality and extent of the services I perform.
2. My primary obligation is to the welfare of my clients. My services are non-diagnostic.
3. I will not discriminate because of race, creed, color, age, sex, sexual orientation or national ancestry in any of my employment practices, rendering of services and work assignments.
4. I give priority to my professional responsibility over my personal interests.
5. I respect the privacy, rights and the needs of my clients and I am responsible with the information I acquire and share with my clients/students.
6. I practice hypnosis/hypnotherapy within the recognized knowledge and competence of the profession and I accept responsibility to help protect the community against unethical practice by any individuals or organizations engaged in hypnotic services.
7. I support the principle that professional practice requires professional education and continuing education.
8. I contribute my knowledge, skills and support to my hypnosis profession. I do not make grandiose claims that project hypnosis as a panacea and I do not imply that I have medical or psychotherapy training.
9. I agree that intimate social contact with clients is forbidden and I keep a strict moral and ethical code in my relationship with clients/students.
10. I treat my fellow professionals with the utmost respect and consideration.

I understand that the maintenance of the highest ethical standards by Sylvia Browne Hypnosis Training Center (SBHTC) is an important support to the professional standing of all Hypnotists/Hypnotherapists. I agree to conduct my practice and all professional interactions in strict accordance with the Code of Ethics as defined now or in the future. By accepting my certification, I consent to